The honorable mayor GW Davis Jr gave the invocation and lead the pledge of allegiance. He apologized to everyone present about the A/C was not working properly.

Councilman Perry Lunsford made the motion to approve the remaining Intergovernmental Agreements (IGAs) with Newton County as well as the whole Service Delivery Strategy agreement, when complete, and Councilman Austin Mitchell gave the second. There was brief discussion regarding the Consecutive Water Agreement noting that it will have a 1 (one) year expiration date instead of a 10-year expiration date. This will allow negotiations between the Cities and the County over the next year regarding this IGA with the idea that it will be renewed, in 1-year, with a 9-year expiration date to allow it to expire with the other IGAs already in place. Councilman Perry Lunsford commented that all the other cities have approved this timeline.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:27 PM.
